

Please join us for a lunch screening and film discussion!

A Path to Dignity

The Power of Human Rights Education

Friday, February 22, 2013, 12-1:30 pm
Harvard Kennedy School of Government
Carr Center Conference Room (Rubenstein 219)
79 JFK Street, Cambridge

Co-sponsored by Human Rights Education Associates (HREA); the Human Rights Professional Interest Council; the Kennedy School Student Government; the Human Rights in Education Program of the Carr Center for Human Rights Policy and Amnesty International Local Group 133

A Path to Dignity is a 28-minute documentary film that demonstrates the impact of human rights education. Stories from school children (India), a law enforcement agency (Australia) and women victims of violence (Turkey) illustrate the power of human rights education in transforming people's lives and empowering individuals to make a difference in their communities. HREA produced this film in collaboration with filmmaker Ellen Bruno, Soka Gakkai International and the Office of UN High Commissioner for Human Rights.

www.hrea.org

Human Rights
Professional Interest
Council

HARVARD Kennedy School
CARR CENTER
for Human Rights Policy

Local Group 133

For more information, please visit www.path-to-dignity.org